have an effect on blood pressure — can help to alleviate the symptoms of their tinnitus.

This combination represents a major advance in supplements, as by using more than just glucosamine sulphate alone, it provides you with optimum joint health.

According to Karen Furbush, business consultant for JCL, "we have to continually re-educate each of the practices at the hospital and the ED so that they can continue to remember what's important."